

The Battle of Bréville, Monday 12th June 1944

Optional Umpire Instructions

By R. Mark Davies

Umpire's eyes only (optional rule for 'friendly fire'): Once the British assault force occupies portions of Bréville, the first 'Danger Close' (i.e. an unmodified 10) rolled by either British FO when calling for a 'Mike' mission will result in the first turn of the preparatory fire plan being fired again – irrespective of friendly troops being within the impact zone (see 'Historical Bréville' in the overview).